This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

CFM Quant Sustainable Absolute Return Fund (the "Fund"), a sub-fund of CFM UCITS ICAV (the "ICAV")
Class I (EUR) Shares (ISIN: IE00BMXYZ521)
The Fund is managed by Capital Fund Management S.A. (the "Manager")

Objective and Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital appreciation.

In seeking to achieve the Fund's investment objective, the Fund will, directly or indirectly through financial derivative instruments ("FDIs") for both investment and hedging purposes, primarily trade equities. FDIs are investments, the price of which are based on one or more underlying assets which the Fund does not physically own and which may, for example, replicate the performance or cash flow of such underlying assets.

An FDI is a contract between two or more parties whose value is based on an agreed-upon underlying financial asset, index or security.

The Fund aims to achieve its investment objective by investing in a diversified portfolio of equities and FDIs according to the CFM Quant Sustainable Absolute Return Program (the "Program") designed by the Manager. The Fund is a quantitative trading fund, meaning that the Program executes trades for the Fund based on models and mathematical formulas, which are systematic in nature, investing in assets drawn from the Fund's investment universe.

Sustainability considerations are fully integrated into the investment process and used to evaluate companies' behaviour and impact in relation to their significant stakeholders and efforts with sustainability.

The Fund does not focus on any geographic region or industry. The Fund seeks to invest in assets that are liquid and generally easy to value. The Manager may also invest in what it deems emerging markets; however, the Fund will not invest more than 20% of its Net Asset Value in such emerging markets.

The Fund will primarily invest in FDIs for investment purposes, but also uses FDIs for hedging purposes, which aims to reduce the risk of adverse price movements in an asset due to certain changes, for example changes in currency or interest rates. The Fund may also invest in other collective investment schemes and ancillary liquid assets (including bank deposits and bonds) to manage cash balances.

The Fund may be leveraged up to 100% of its Net Asset Value.

Income and dividends of the Fund will be reinvested and rolled up into the value of the shares.

The base currency of the Fund is in Euro and your shares will be denominated in Euro.

You may redeem your shares on demand on any business day that commercial banks are open for business in Dublin and New York.

Risk and Reward Profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

The indicator above illustrates the position of this Fund on a standard risk/reward category scale. The risk and reward category identified is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean investment is "risk free". This indicator is not a measure of the risk that you may lose the amount you have invested. The seven-category scale is complex; for example, a category 2 fund is not twice as risky as a category 1 fund.

The Fund is risk category 5 due to the nature of its investments, which are primarily equities and FDIs with exposure to underlying assets described above which, based on historic data, have medium volatility.

The Fund may also be exposed to other risks that the risk indicator does not adequately capture. These may include:

Credit and Counterparty Risk: The Fund deposits cash as margin for its FDI positions with counterparties and may invest in debt securities or money market instruments. The Fund is therefore exposed to the risk that a counterparty may become unable to meet its financial obligations or declare bankruptcy.

Derivatives and Leverage Risk: The Fund uses FDIs for investment and hedging purposes, including to manage risk or to take investment positions more efficiently or effectively than could be done otherwise, but FDIs can involve leverage and the risk of higher volatility, and the Fund may be exposed to additional risks and costs as a result. FDIs give the potential of greater returns but this also means greater risk for your investment.

Liquidity Risk: The Fund invests significantly in FDIs, which are by their nature sufficiently liquid, yet may under certain circumstances have a relatively low level of liquidity so as to have an impact on the level of liquidity risk of the Fund as a whole.

Investment Strategy Risk: The Fund's success is dependent on the performance of the Program. The strategy is expected to have moderate volatility. Trading decisions are based on mathematical analysis of technical factors related to past performance and market activity and profitability depends on the ability of the strategy to continue to successfully identify market trends which the Program uses to make profits.
